Luke 12:27-30

<sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. <sup>28</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you of little faith! <sup>29</sup> And do not keep seeking what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. <sup>30</sup> For it is the nations of the world that seek all these things, and your Father knows you need them.

I love this passage because Jesus speaks of God giving us what we need. The key word here is “need,” not want. Four months after arriving here at CCC in 2011, my daughter sent me this via email and I have kept it close. I hope you find it as moving as I have:

Recently I overheard a father and daughter in their last moments together at the airport. They had announced the departure of her plane.

Standing near the security gate, they hugged, and the father said, 'I love you, and I wish you enough.' The daughter replied, 'Dad, our life together has been more than enough. Your love is all I ever needed. I wish you enough, too, Dad..'

They kissed and the daughter left. The Father walked over to the window where I was seated. Standing there I could see he wanted and needed to cry. I tried not to intrude on his privacy, but he welcomed me in by asking, "Did you ever say good-bye to someone knowing it would be forever?"

'Yes, I have,' I replied. 'Forgive me for asking, but why is this a forever good-bye?'

'I am old, and she lives so far away. I have challenges ahead and the reality is - the next trip back will be for my funeral,' he said.

'When you were saying good-bye, I heard you say, 'I wish you enough.' May I ask what that means?' He began to smile. 'That's a wish that has been handed down from other generations. My parents used to say it to everyone...' He paused a moment and looked up as if trying to remember it in detail, and he smiled even more. 'When we said, 'I wish you enough,' we were wanting the other person to have a life filled with just enough good things to sustain them.' Then turning towards me, he shared the following as if he were reciting it from memory.

I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright no matter how gray the day may appear.

I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun even more.

I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and everlasting.

I wish you enough pain so even the smallest of joys in life may appear bigger.

I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.

I wish you enough loss to appreciate all you possess.

I wish you enough hellos to get you through the final good-bye.

He then began to cry and walked away.

They say it takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them; but then an entire life to forget them. TAKE TIME TO LIVE.....

To all my friends and loved ones, I WISH YOU ENOUGH

The Season of Creation begins on September 1, World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, and ends on September 30.

Individuals and communities are invited to participate through prayer, sustainability projects and advocacy.

- Prayer: Host an ecumenical prayer gathering that unites all Christians for the care of our common home.
- Sustainability: Lead a cleanup project that helps all of creation thrive.

Advocacy: Raise your voice for climate justice by participating in or leading an ongoing campaign, such as the fossil fuel divestment movement.

We invite you to plan your own participation for the season. As a first step, visit seasonofcreation.org.

For this year, the proposed theme is: “Listening to the voice of creation” with the symbol of the burning bush. During the COVID-19 pandemic, many have become familiar with the concept of being silenced in conversations. Many voices are silenced in the public discourse on climate change and the ethics of Earth conservation.

They are voices of those who suffer the impacts of climate change. They are voices of people who possess ancestral wisdom about how to live with gratitude within the limits of Earth. They are voices of a diminishing diversity of species rather than humans. It is the voice of the Earth.

Taking action during the Season of Creation is living out our faith.

The Church, following the teachings of Jesus, from the Social Doctrine, throughout time has exhorted believers to work for the common good, which requires dignifying life in all its forms, caring for the common home, committing to the construction of more just, supportive, fraternal and peaceful societies, among other fundamental aspects.

Often, when we speak of creation, it is related to nature, animals, landscapes, the sun, the moon, but rarely do we become aware that the human being is the culmination of the God’s creative work, “God saw all he had made, and indeed it was very good.” (Gen 1:31), Scripture states, implying that God, after the creation of man and woman, is pleased to see all their work.

In this regard, it is important to mention in the Bible there are several references to the creative work of the God, who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them (Rom 4:24) and, moreover, lovingly arranges everything to sustain and promote harmony: “Look at the birds in the sky. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them” (Mt 6:26).

In other words, he is not only a creator God, but a loving God who tenderly cares for the work of his hands and has a vision of fraternity for all humanity.

Accordingly, the Season of Creation is a celebration that allows all people to recognize ourselves as “the work of the Lord’s creative act,” to contemplate nature and all that dwells in it, and to care for our Common Home.

It is necessary for all believers to join in the celebration of the Season of Creation. Since “what was good in the eyes of God has become an exploitable thing in the hands of man”, and it is urgent as Church we implement concrete actions towards care and preservation.

What's Been Happening in Disciples Men?

It has been quite a while since we published the last edition of The Voice of Disciples Men. Alex and I sincerely apologize for that. Rest assured, since the last publication, much has been happening in the world of Disciples Men.

Disciples Men is a very part-time ministry for both Alex and me. That is not by our choice or the choice of Disciples Home Missions. It is a reflection of the financial realities denominations as a whole are facing. Alex and I both have other ministry responsibilities beyond Disciples Men. So, passion, not profit, drives our desire to serve. This reality requires us to prioritize our time in ways that, we believe, provide the best return.

Beyond our weekly Zoom meetings, we devoted our time to the following.

The Jesus Way Journey was first released in 2020. We published it as a pdf rather than going through the normal "book" publishing process to reduce the cost to the church and to allow for easy revisions as warranted. Since its release, we have received great feedback on how to make it better. So, Alex and I took a hard look at the materials, line by line. We incorporated much of the feedback received, and we discovered other changes that would strengthen the resource.

Now, as of this week, that work is completed. The 2022 Edition of The Jesus Way is available for purchase. We are very excited about this newly revised resource for men's ministry and encourage you to prayerfully consider using it in your congregation.

The Disciples Men's Podcast continues to be a wonderful opportunity for Alex and me to introduce the work of Disciples Men to the wonderful leaders of our church and to introduce these wonderful leaders to all of you. Each leader we have interviewed has been very supportive of our work and committed to supporting this ministry in any way that they can.

In addition, Alex and I use the podcast to introduce current and pertinent topics that impact our work as Disciples Men. We want us to wrestle with the question, how is God calling us to respond to these challenges if we are to be faithful to God?

Thanks to Alex's diligent work, Disciples Men's Podcast is now available on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and Amazon Music/Audible. Just go to your favorite podcast app, search for Disciples Men and click to become a follower. Here is a list of our most recent podcasts:

Rev. Angele Saunders Johnson, the new Director of Disciples Women;
Touchstones (3 available) - a series of podcasts unpacking the five touchstones that now ground the ministry of the General Conference of Disciples Men;
Patriarchy, White Supremacy, and their Impact on Men's Ministries.

Upcoming podcasts include conversations about the remaining two Touchstones, an interview with new Disciples Home Missions President Dr. Chris Dorsey, and the wonderful work of the Executive Committee of the General Conference of Disciples Men. There is much good news to share coming from the GCDM.

Alex and I continue to keynote regional men's events in-person and by Zoom. It has been a real blessing to return to face-to-face gatherings this year.

In the final stages of production is a new video podcast entitled, "Contexts and Contrasts." It is our intent to use this resource to make the case for revitalizing congregational men's ministries. Stay tuned!

On the drawing board is a new pilot ministry. Alex and I will host a weekly men's study by way of Zoom. There will be no cost to participate. Seating will be limited and require men to sign up to reserve a seat. We plan to do a trial run of four to six weeks to test the waters for interest and format. Then, using the feedback we receive, we will decide if the interest is sufficient to warrant making this a regular feature of Disciples Men.

DISCIPLES MEN PODCAST

Please join Greg and Alex as they discuss issues related to men's ministry from a variety of perspectives. Listen to their conversations with Disciples leaders as they explore the importance of a dynamic men's ministry among Disciples. Dear Church Family,

We are reaching out to you to remind you our church is alive and well but remains in need of your support. We realize these are difficult days but the ministry of our church presses on. In the past month we have had two water heaters break, replaced a freezer in our Disciple Hall kitchen, an increase in our electric bill due to the restoration equipment used in the Education Building, an issue with our phone system and air conditioning problems in the parlor and sanctuary. We need your support to repair and replace the necessary items and to pay the increase in our electric bill for the upkeep of our beautiful building.

As a reminder, there are a number of ways in which you may send the needed support:

1. Label your offering as special gift.
2. Mail your check via USPS in the enclosed addressed envelope.
3. Online banking, if you use it.
4. Go to the church with money or check in an envelope and drop it in the mail slot located by the entrance to the Admin. Offices.
5. Use Givelify. If you use this method, please be sure to find Central Christian Church, Texarkana.

Although we are preparing for the upcoming stewardship drive, this need is immediate and would be above and beyond your yearly commitment. We hope you and your family are well. Thank you for your faithfulness in supporting our church and God bless.

In our Sanctuary/Education building we have three areas where we try to maintain an energy efficient temperature; that can be adjusted as needed. These areas are the sanctuary, the parlor, and HeBrews. Each area has their own controls.

In an attempt to help us control the cost of heating and cooling our Sanctuary/Education building we are asking everyone to help keep doors in these areas shut at all times. When doors are left open, the heat goes up the staircases to the hallway and upper rooms and the A/C goes into rooms we are not using downstairs.

The parlor has two doors we need to keep closed, HeBrews has two doors into hallway we need to keep closed, and the kitchen door to the hallway we need to keep closed. In the area where the water fountain and women's restroom are, the door going up the steps into back of the sanctuary and the door in the hallway leading to HeBrews need to be kept closed.

With everyone's help we can save on the cost of gas and electricity.

Thank You!

Your Property Committee

The Journey Sunday School Class will continue our study of

1 John

We hope you will join us.

The Journey class meets in the Library in the Community Center.

The First Epistle of John is the first of the Johannine epistles of the New Testament, and the fourth of the catholic epistles. There is no scholarly consensus as to the authorship of the Johannine works. The author of the First Epistle is termed John the Evangelist, who most scholars believe is not the same as John the Apostle. Most scholars believe the three Johannine epistles have the same author, but there is no consensus if this was also the author of the Gospel of John.

This epistle was probably written in Ephesus between 95 and 110 AD. The author advises Christians on how to discern true teachers: by their ethics, their proclamation of Jesus in the flesh, and by their love. The original text was written in Koine Greek. The epistle is divided into five chapters.

PRAYER LIST

IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT PRAYER LIST

In recent discussions with the Southwest Region, it has come to our attention “The Prayer List” may be cause for litigation if we place people on it that have not given their personal consent to be placed on it.

It is a violation of HIPAA Law to release information about anyone without their personal consent. Therefore, we ask that you not call requesting that a “friend” be placed on the list unless you have their consent.

THANK YOU.
